

Elizabeth J. Drake
Partner, Schagrin Associates

Ms. Elizabeth J. Drake is an international trade attorney and partner at Schagrin Associates in Washington, D.C. She has experience in a broad array of international trade law matters, including antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings, section 301 petitions, China-specific safeguards, unilateral trade preference programs, international and bilateral trade agreements, agricultural and environmental trade policy, and international labor standards. Ms. Drake has represented clients in proceedings before the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. International Trade Commission, the U.S. Trade Representative, the U.S. Court of International Trade, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. She has also advised clients on trade policy and legislative matters, as well as dispute settlement proceedings before the World Trade Organization. Ms. Drake has testified and written on a variety of issues in international trade, including China's industrial policies, WTO rules and disputes, and Buy America laws. She has been recognized by Best Lawyers, Chambers USA, and Super Lawyers.

Prior to joining Schagrin Associates in 2017, Ms. Drake practiced trade remedy law for twelve years and served for six years as an international policy analyst at the AFL-CIO. Ms. Drake received her J.D. from Harvard Law School and a B.A. in Anthropology from the University of California at Berkeley.

Ms. Drake previously testified before the Commission at the February 2019 hearing on "Risks, Rewards, and Results: U.S. Companies in China and Chinese Companies in the United States," the February 2014 hearing on "U.S.-China Economic Challenges," the May 2013 hearing on "Trends and Implications of Chinese Investment in the United States," and the June 2012 hearing on "The Evolving U.S.-China Trade and Investment Relationship."