

Lauri Paltemaa

Director - Centre for East Asian Studies (CEAS) at the University of Turku, Finland

Dr. Lauri Paltemaa is Professor of East Asian Contemporary History and Politics, and the Director of the Department of Philosophy, Contemporary History, and Political Science as well as the Centre for East Asian Studies (CEAS) at the University of Turku, Finland. He is also the Chair of the Finnish University Network of Asian Studies. Dr. Paltemaa's research interests include Chinese internet politics, governance, disaster management and overseas humanitarian aid, social movements and contemporary history. Dr. Paltemaa's publications include Managing Famine, Flood and Earthquake in China - Tianjin 1958-85 published in 2016 by Routledge. In addition, he has edited a special issue on Chinese disaster management for the China Information (2017). Dr. Paltemaa has also published a number of monographs including Lyhyt johdatus Kiinan historiaan (A Short Introduction to Chinese History, CEAS 2018) and Kiinan poliittinen järjestelmä (Chinese Political System, with Mikael Mattlin and Juha A. Vuori, Vastapaino 2022). His articles have appeared in journals such as Information, Communication and Society, The China Journal, China Information and The Modern Asian Studies.

Dr. Paltemaa has not previously testified before the Commission.